

PAT Test Results Certificate- Take Cover

Having thoroughly inspected/tested all the electrical appliances used by the band
Take Cover in their music performances which required testing on 14/09/09
I can report that all items have passed and are Ok to use.

All electrical items labelled with Pass labels & listed in inventory met the requirements of the Code of Practice for In-service Inspection and Testing of Electrical Equipment as published by the Institute of Electrical Engineers.
